

KING COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE UPDATE- LAW, JUSTICE, HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES COMMITTEE 2-14-12

CHIEF DEPUTY STEVE STRACHAN
KING COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Current issues for 2012

- Continue to build regional partnerships
 - ▣ Contract partnerships
 - ▣ Better public safety and increased efficiencies
 - ▣ Governance and long-term planning
 - ▣ Building positive relationships with our municipal partners
 - ▣ KCSO as a trusted partner— to the community, to our area agencies, and to each other

Current issues for 2012

- Regional approaches for human trafficking and juvenile prostitution
- Related to organized crime
- Ensure we are working together and are leveraging our limited resources the right way

Recent successes at KCSO

- Development of our new Business Plan: to create an accountable, specific road map for the next five year
- New Zone Deployment plan based on Lean principles: to match resources to demand and reduce overtime costs
- Always mindful of public safety and officer safety

Needs for KCSO in 2012

- ❑ Cold Case Unit- funding is running out
 - ❑ Internal expertise
 - ❑ Continuing regional need
 - ❑ Serious cases

THANK YOU.
